

Mental Health Support & Response

Canopy's proprietary certification program helps participants support employee mental health.

Participants learn about:

- Common mental health conditions
- How mental health conditions present in the workplace
- Effective ways to support an individual experiencing mental health crisis
- How to create a safer work environment
- Caring for yourself when supporting others
- Available resources

This course will include a certification of completion and course takeaways.

